TREATS FOR TEACHERS

It's that time of year again when our kiddos go back to school. Our teachers do a lot for our kids and we want to thank them and wish them luck on a successful school year. We are going to be taking cookies to the teachers on the first day of school and need to have 60 dozen. If you can provide 4 dozen cookies, please let Jill DeJarnett know.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

Summer is almost over and school will be starting soon. We have put together a list of supplies to take to the schools for students needing them. The list of supplies is on the podium in the foyer or on the bulletin board across from the office. Watch for sales! The deadline for the supplies is August 19.

When given the CHOICE between being RIGHT and being KIND, CHOOSE KIND!

When missing church
begins not to bother you anymore,
then sin will not bother you either!
Go to God's house!!! You DO need it!!!

If you are visiting today, welcome!

LIVE WISE

King Solomon was given more wisdom than anyone who has ever lived, with the exception of Jesus, yet even with his wealth of knowledge he still lived a life of disobedience in many ways. Because of his disobedience, he was led to do unthinkable things, like worshipping false gods. This alarms me, because I am not as wise as Solomon - not by a long shot. How can I be sure that I don't fall into the same deplorable acts? Ironically, Solomon can help. Ecclesiastes chapter 12 verse 13 says,

The conclusion, when all has been heard, is: fear God and keep His commandments...

This is a very simple command, but the simplicity of a commandment does not mean that the obedience will also be simple. The most important truths of the Bible are easy to understand, but we have been struggling to obey from the very beginning. Wisdom and obedience alike begin with the fear of God. Proverbs chapter 1 verse 7 says,

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge;

A wonderful thing is that when we fear the Lord, and begin to live a life of obedience, our obedience that began in fear becomes an obedience that is born of love and overwhelming gratitude. How does the love and gratitude occur? It begins to develop when, by faith, we obey and observe that God's ways are truly better than our own and that every teaching is for our greatest good and never for our harm. Having wisdom alone is not enough to live a Godly life, but wisdom combined with obedience produces a harvest of righteousness.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

At the Seattle Special Olympics, nine contestants, all physically or mentally disabled, assembled at the starting line for the 100 yard dash. At the gun, they all started out, not exactly in a dash; but with a relish to run the race to the finish and win.

All, that is, except one boy who stumbled on the asphalt, tumbled over a couple of times and began to cry. The other eight heard the boy cry. They slowed down and looked back. They all turned around and went back. Every one of them. One girl with Down's Syndrome bent down and kissed him and said, "This will make it better."

Then all nine of them linked arms and walked across the finish line together. Everyone in the stadium stood, and the cheering went on for some time. People who were there are still telling the story. Why? Because deep down we know this one thing: What matters in life is more than winning for ourselves. What truly matters in this life is helping others win too, even if it means slowing down and changing our course.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

WHEN YOU ARE GOING THROUGH DIFFICULTY AND WONDER WHERE GOD IS,
REMEMBER THAT THE TEACHER IS ALWAYS QUIET DURING THE TEST.

DADDY HAD A LITTLE BOY

Daddy had a little boy, his soul was white as snow;
He never went to Bible study 'cause daddy wouldn't go.

He never heard the Word of God that thrills the childish mind—
While other children went to class, this child was left behind.

As he grew from babe to youth, dad saw to his dismay,
A soul that once was snowy white became a dingy gray.

Dad even started back to church and Bible study, too;
He begged the preacher, "Isn't there a thing that you can do?"

The preacher tried and tried, and said, "We're just too far behind;
I tried to tell you years ago, but you would pay no mind."

And so another soul was lost, that once was white as snow;
Bible study would have helped, but daddy wouldn't go.

The quickest way for a parent to get a child's attention is to sit down and look comfortable.
