Truth Bomb

A colloquialism in our day and time is the idea that we can be metaphorically hit by a "truth bomb." The phrase "truth bomb" implies the shocking and powerful nature of the truth. When a person is ignorant of the truth, and then exposed to the truth, it has powerful psychological and emotional effects, much like a physical bomb has powerful physical effects.

Have you ever been hit by a truth bomb? I have, and let me tell you, it can really stink! It can also be good. Here are a few from my past, beginning with the stinkers:

I'm not a great athlete

I'm not a great singer

I'm not overly intelligent

I'll never be taller

These are just a few of the negative truth bombs that I have experienced. Here's some positives:

I don't have to be a great athlete to have fun

I can sing in a band despite not being a great singer

Intelligence is over-rated compared to hard work and ambition

My wife loves me even though I'm short

Truth always contains a positive and negative aspect. Paul sums up the positive and negative of the gospel in one sentence:

1 Timothy 1:15 - It is a trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, among whom I am foremost of all.

Negative truth bomb – I am a sinner.

Positive truth bomb – Jesus came to save me!

Personally, the truth that I am sinner in need of a savior is the greatest "truth bomb" I've ever been hit with – and what a terrible truth – but it was only terrible until I was told how much God loves me. He loved me enough to send Jesus to save me from my sin – what a wonderful truth!

THAT'S WHY I NEVER EAT

Everybody has an excuse for not attending worship services. If we take those excuses and apply them to something else we do or don't do, they might look like this list:

I don't eat anymore because...I was forced to eat as a child. People who eat all the time are hypocrites; they aren't really hungry. There are so many different kinds of food, I can't decide what to eat. I used to eat, but I got bored. None of my friends will eat with me. I only eat on special occasions, like Christmas and Easter. I'll start eating when I get older. I'm too busy working. I don't really have the time. I don't believe that eating does any good. It's just a crutch. Restaurants and grocery stores are only after your money.

Laughable, isn't it? Regular attendance for worship to God is vital for a healthy soul (Hebrews 10:25). Our relationship with God is far more important than regular, balanced meals. Without spiritual food, we will die (I Peter 2:2).

You are invited to come and worship with us at the Church of Christ. In fact, we'll save you a seat! —Selected

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

If you can trust a puzzle company to make sure every piece is in the box to complete the puzzle, than why can't you trust GOD that every piece of your life is there for a reason.

As God's people, we're to be beacons of truth in a world that is saturated with lies. As we look continue to examine the corrective teachings of Jesus, brace yourself for the impact of some divine "truth bombs!"

Koine Greek Word of the Week:

In today's text, the word "oath" comes from the Greek verb omnyo, and means "to swear" or "to promise."

THE CORRECTIVE VOLUME 4: OATHS

Matthew 5:33-37

33 "Again, you have heard that the ancients were told, 'YOU SHALL NOT MAKE FALSE VOWS, BUT SHALL FULFILL YOUR VOWS TO THE LORD.' 34 But I say to you, make no oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, 35 or by the earth, for it is the footstool of His feet, or by Jerusalem, for it is THE CITY OF THE GREAT KING. 36 Nor shall you make an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 But let your statement be, 'Yes, yes' or 'No, no'; anything beyond these is of evil.

Oaths were _____ in the Old Testament.

God makes _____.

The purpose of oaths: _____.

The Law: Do not make false vows.
