SEVEN WONDERS OF THE WORLD

A group of students was asked to list what they thought were the present Seven Wonders of the World. Though there was some disagreement, the following got the most votes:

1. Egypt's Great Pyramids
2. Taj Mahal
3. Grand Canyon
4. Panama Canal
5. Empire State Building
6. St. Peter's Basilica
7. China's Great Wall

While gathering the votes, the teacher noted that one quiet student hadn't turned in her paper yet. So she asked the girl if she was having trouble with her list. The girl replied, "Yes, a little. I couldn't quite make up my mind because there were so many." The teacher said, "Well, tell us what you have, and maybe we can help." The girl hesitated, then read, "I think the Seven Wonders of the World are to see, to taste, to touch, to hear. She hesitated a little then added, to feel, to laugh, and to love."

Those things we overlook as simple and ordinary are wondrous. Let his serve as a gentle reminder that most precious things in life cannot be bought or made by man: God gave them to us. (James 1:17)

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK

Worry

I'm not intentionally controversial. I don't believe that God has called me to that. I don't believe that He's called anyone to that. I say this only because I know that what I'm about to write may be controversial or possibly offensive. I just wanted you to know that it is not my intention to offend, but simply to express what the Bible teaches. Here it is:

Worry is sin.

Many of you find no offense in this Biblical truth, but some may. The Bible says, in some form, "do not worry" 365 times – one for each day of the year.

I remember an argument I had one time with a person who accused me of not caring. I explained that I did care. The person argued that if I cared, I would be worried.

When she said those words to me a light bulb came on in my mind: People associate worry with caring. Does that hit home with you? It does with me. Shamefully, I worry about my children often. I worry they will get hurt. I worry I will mess them up somehow. I worry they will be sitting in a room with a therapist twenty years from now saying, "My dad really messed me up because..." or something like that.

I tell myself the lie that I worry because I care. It's a lie. I don't worry because I care. I worry because I have small faith. I worry because I don't trust God to take care of my children.

I'm not saying that people shouldn't be responsible parents. I'm saying that worry is not a part of responsibility.

That's just one example, but worry can be applied to unlimited situations. In Philippians 4:6, the apostle Paul says, Be anxious for nothing...

In other words, don't worry about ANYTHING. What a message in our world filled with worry and fear! How is this possible? We'll discuss this in the sermon!

Let's stop worrying together!

PRAYER LIST

Sandy Albin-as she continues treatment.

Mary Schaffer-(friend of Larry Helton) struggling with cancer.

GUEST SPEAKERS

With Wes away in Honduras on a mission trip, we will have guests speakers for the next two weeks. On June 9, our guest speaker will be Mark Haas from Northside Church of Christ, and on June 16, our guest speaker will be Byron Newberry from Oklahoma Christian.

NEW CUSTODIAN

Deanna Garver has begun serving as the custodian of our building. Please encourage the Garvers in this new role. This is a part-time position with many responsibilities, so let's each do our part to keep our building presentable.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Never trust your tongue, when your heart is bitter or broken.
Flush until you're healed.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2019

Koine Greek Word of the Week:

In today's text, the word "life" comes from the Greek noun psyche, and means "the vital force which animates the body" or "soul." When Jesus says "life" he means so much more than the beating of our heart and the functionality of our body; He means the part of us that is eternal, not temporal.

THE TEMPTATION OF THE POOR

Matthew 6:25-34

25 "For this reason I say to you, do not be worried about your life, as to what you will eat or what you will drink; nor for your body, as to what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? 26 Look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow, nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they? 27 And who of you by being worried can add a single hour to his life? 28 And why are you worried about clothing? Observe how the lilies of the field grow; they do not toil nor do they spin, 29 yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these. 30 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith! 31 Do not worry then, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear for clothing?' 32 For the Gentiles eagerly seek all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. 33 But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. 34 "So do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will care for itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Don't Worry if:

#1) _____

#2) _____

#3) _____

Don't _____ yourself with _____.

God _____, _____ and _____ everything a believer needs.

For Christians, _____ is _____.
