FROM THE PREACHERS DESKTreasure

What do you treasure above all else? Before you answer, first consider these questions:

What do I daydream about most?

What do I spend the most time wishing I was doing?

Why not ask, what do I do most and what do I spend the most time thinking about? Because to a lot of people, the answer is “work.” And while work is what people are inclined to think about most often, because it is what they spend the bulk of their time doing, it is rarely what they want to think about and is rarely what they want to be doing.

In my Wednesday night Bible classes, I often use outdoor photos from places all over the world in my PowerPoint presentations. The photos I use are of places that I would like to go. Typically, they are tropical beaches.

At the heart of the matter, I don't truly long for the beaches in the photos. I've been to tropical beaches and what the pictures don't show are the bugs, heat, smells and people. They are not all they are cracked up to be. Nothing in this world is. I think what I desire most is an idyllic environment, a place of perfection. Heaven.

So many Christians spend so much time trying to make this life as enjoyable as possible instead of focusing on laying up treasure in the life to come. I can see the world getting caught up in this line of thinking, but for Christians this shouldn't be.

We should understand that a bigger house, newer car, better clothes and more vacations don't bring us true joy and happiness but instead create a greater, self-seeking appetite for more and more.

A line in a song I like says, “The more I have, the more I think, I'm almost where I need to be...If only I could get a little more.” That's the trap, that nagging sensation of, “I need just a little more.”

Jesus wants us to shift our focus from the here-and-now to the there-and-when. He doesn't want us to live in poverty or to be wealthy or to be somewhere in between. However much we have in this life, He

CARD OF THANKS

Dear Wellington Church of Christ, I cannot begin to express my gratitude for all that the church has done for me growing up. I thank all of you for being excellent role models for me, as well as being a constant support for me to lean on. I will do my best to take the lessons learned here to strengthen my love for God and build my relationship with Him. Thank you & God bless. Sincerely Tanner Dillon P.S. Special thanks to Bobby Newberry & Rex & Jeanne Harris for all the help they gave at my grad party!

simply (but not so simply for us) desires that our focus be on heavenly pursuits. He expects that I use whatever He has blessed me with for higher, heavenly purposes. Paul says simply in Colossians 3:2,

Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth.

We will discuss this topic on Sunday morning; I can't wait! Much love to you all!

Koine Greek Word of the Week:

In today's text, the word “clear” comes from the Greek adjective haplous, and means “single” or “whole.” The idea is that of being single-minded or wholly focused on one thing.

A TALE OF TWO TREASURES

Matthew 6:19-24

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. “The eye is the lamp of the body; so then if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

Neither _____ nor the _____ demand poverty.

Wealth is both a spiritual _____ and a physical _____.

The way we _____ and _____ our wealth is an indicator of our _____ condition.
