FROM THE PREACHERS DESKThe Test

As we approach the end of the Sermon on the Mount, my conviction level is through the roof. How can it not be when I hear Jesus say things like,

Vs 13 – Enter through the narrow gate...there are few who find it.

Vs 15 – Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing...

Vs 21 – Not everyone who says to Me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven...

Vs 23 – I will declare to them, I never knew you...

This week, Jesus will conclude his great sermon by describing two types of builders, one who builds on a foundation of rock and one who builds on a foundation of sand.

It's not a complicated message. It's strikingly simple.

Vs 24 - ...everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them = wise = true Christian = saved.

Vs 26 – Everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not act on them = foolish = false Christian = eternally damned.

To put vs 24-27 in the simplest terms possible, those who believe in and are obedient to the teachings of Jesus are saved. Those who confess Jesus as the Christ and / or obtain much knowledge about Him but are not obedient to His commands will never see Heaven.

The question we must all ask is this: Does my faith produce obedience to Jesus' commands? If not, we must re-examine our foundations. James says in the second chapter of his book that faith without works is dead. Jesus teaches the same thing in Matthew 7. He explains that there will be people that call Him Lord – only - and hear His words - only - but never obey His commands.

Take the test, but for the sake of your soul, don't ignore the test results. It is worth any change you have to make, any sacrifice, to follow Jesus. To follow Jesus is to obey Him. Don't take my word for it – read Matthew chapter 7.

Let's continue to grow in grace and knowledge together! Let's show the world who Jesus is by our regular confession of Him, our knowledge of His teachings and our obedience to the same!

Much Love,

Wes LeFlore (918) 607-8489 or huskerwes1@gmail.com

PRAYER LIST

TREATS FOR TEACHERS

If you committed to making cookies for our teachers, they need to be here Wednesday, August 14. Our teachers do a lot for our kids and we want to thank them and wish them luck on a successful school year.

Koine Greek Word of the Week:

In today's text, the phrase "the rock" comes from the Greek noun petra, and means, "bed rock." It is upon the bed rock that Jesus urges us to build upon...but what is the bed rock exactly?
