FROM THE PREACHERS DESK

My Demons

I often have heard people blame the devil for their sin, but how much of our sin is simply due to the fact that we love sin? James 1:14 says,

But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust (emphasis mine).

Do you see that? I'm not saying that the forces of evil in this world are not at work against us; I'm just saying that our rebellion is not always due to being tempted by the devil. We do his work for him when we give in to our temptations without a fight.

I have often heard people refer to their sin of choice as "their demons," and this phrase is typically used when someone is excusing their sin by saying that everyone else sins too. E.g. "I know I (my sin here), but we all have our demons."

A poem by Natalia Crow reads,

*Some of my demons left me
 Some are just asleep
 A few always travel with me
 Others haunt me from the deep
 The little ones are charming
 They are allowed to stay
 The big ones tear me up inside
 I wish they'd go away*

Isn't that the truth? When I bowed the knee to Jesus, some of the "demons" left me. I simply didn't have a pull toward some sin anymore. Some of our demons lie dormant, as if asleep, but put into the right set of circumstances, they come roaring back to life.

Some demons I try to get rid of but they seem impossible to shake completely. The ones that haunt me are the ones I've been rid of, but the memory of them still bring me pain.

Some I don't see as bad anymore, after all, everyone breaks the smaller laws, right? Everyone watches and listens to some things with filthy content, right? Everyone uses some bad language, right? We convince ourselves that these are the "little ones."

Then there are the "big ones." The ones that we're desperate to be rid of.

A LITTLE HUMOR!

During Sunday school, the teacher asked the children what Amen means. A little boy raised his hand and said, "It means tha-tha-tha-that's all folks!"

The teacher asked her class to draw a picture of their favorite Bible story. She was puzzled by one little boy's picture that showed four people in an airplane, so she asked him which story it represented. "The flight to Egypt," the boy said. "I see...and that must be Mary, Joseph, and Baby Jesus," the teachers said. "But who's the fourth person?" "Oh, that's Pontius the pilot!"

Why didn't they play cards on the Ark? Because Noah was standing on the deck.

As Noah remarked while the animals were boarding the Ark. "Now I've herd everything."

A merry heart doeth good. —Proverbs 17:22

In your desperation to be rid of your sin and more like Jesus, what measures do you take to find success? How are you fighting back? Are you fighting back? Have you convinced yourself that it's hopeless to fight back and simply given in?

This is my encouragement to you: FIGHT BACK. I am here for you, and, much more important, God is here for you. Remember Christian brothers and sisters the words of 1 John 4:4,

...greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world.

The Power of the King: Power Over the Supernatural

Matthew 8:28-34

28 When He came to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, two men who were demon-possessed met Him as they were coming out of the tombs. They were so extremely violent that no one could pass by that way. 29 And they cried out, saying, "What business do we have with each other, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?" 30 Now there was a herd of many swine feeding at a distance from them. 31 The demons began to entreat Him, saying, "If You are going to cast us out, send us into the herd of swine." 32 And He said to them, "Go!" And they came out and went into the swine, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the waters. 33 The herdsmen ran away, and went to the city and reported everything, including what had happened to the demoniacs. 34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw Him, they implored Him to leave their region.
