FROM THE PREACHERS DESK

What If...

What would it look like if every person at our church set just one ministry goal for 2020? When I say ministry goal, it could be a variety of different things.

It could be committed service of some kind that serves the church. It could be encouraging five people every Sunday. It could be praying for the preacher before he speaks every Sunday. (Who knows, maybe the preaching would be better!) It could be planning a fellowship activity of some kind. It could be getting a prayer partner that you get together with every week with a list of things to pray for together, or a Bible study partner that you read and discuss scripture with every week.

I have to warn you, in this current series, Ministry and Discipleship, the lessons are packed with expectations that Jesus has for His followers. This includes me and it includes you.

The more I study Matthew chapter ten, the more excited I feel about trying new things. Personally, I think that I have spent too much time thinking about something "big" I could do in ministry, all the while neglecting some of the most powerful things I could be doing.

For instance, praying is a big deal. It's not a big deal because it's us doing the praying. It's a big deal because of who is listening. One ministry goal of mine is to pray more. That God will do great things through His church in Wellington, that He will give us opportunities to share the gospel with people that haven't heard it and that He will create revival in the hearts of the citizens of Wellington.

What has God placed on your heart? Don't keep it inside. Do something.

The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand! Matthew 10:7

Much love,

THE GOLDEN RULE

Be what you want others to be.

Say what you want others to say.

Love like you want to be loved.

Live like you want others to live around you.

Be faithful because you want others to be faithful to you.

Sing like what you want our singing to be.

Be as faithful in worship as you want your children to be.

Serve like you want to be served.

Smile like you want others to smile around you.

Pray for others like you want others to pray for you.

Care for others because you want to be cared for.

Forgive others because you need others to forgive you.

Be there for others because you will need others to be there for you.

Compliment others because you need them to compliment you.

Comfort others and those around you will become your strength.

Be Christ-like and those around you will be Christ-like too.

Rejoice in the Lord and those around you will rejoice.

"A little leaven, leavens the whole lump of dough."

Galatians 5:9

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Unresolved guilt will turn you into a miserable, weary, angry, stressed-out, fretful mess.

Guilt sucks the life right out of our souls.

Grace restores it.

MINISTRY & DISCIPLESHIP: PART 2, MINISTRY STEPS

Matthew 10:5-15

These twelve Jesus sent out after instructing them: "Do not go in the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter any city of the Samaritans; but rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And as you go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. Freely you received, freely give. Do not acquire gold, or silver, or copper for your money belts, or a bag for your journey, or even two coats, or sandals, or a staff; for the worker is worthy of his support. And whatever city or village you enter, inquire who is worthy in it, and stay at his house until you leave that city. As you enter the house, give it your greeting. If the house is worthy, give it your blessing of peace. But if it is not worthy, take back your blessing of peace. Whoever does not receive you, nor heed your words, as you go out of that house or that city, shake the dust off your feet. Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.
