SOUP & SCRIPTURE NIGHT

Gals & Gab will meet at 6:00 p.m. on January 16 for a Soup & Scripture night. Come and enjoy a warm bowl of soup while we share ideas for scripture writing and more. Also, if anyone would like to plan a night in at the church building, out somewhere, or host one at their house, we will have a sign up sheet for you to schedule a date. We need hosts for February, March, April and May.

Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.

—Hebrews 10:24-25

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK

Resolutions

What are you planning to do differently in 2020? I'm a bit behind, but will have my goals finalized very soon.

I'm going to have categories of goals. Professional goals, personal goals, mission goals and family goals. Over-riding all goals is my continuous goal of striving to be like Christ.

What does it mean to strive to be like Jesus? Much can be said, but what it means most to me is dying to myself more and more in exchange for being transformed into an image more like Jesus.

The older I get, the more I look at the big picture, and nothing affects my goal setting process more. By the big picture, I mean that I look at my life as a whole. I don't think as much about this year as I think about my last year, assuming that I will live to old age, which is a very big assumption.

Another way to say what I mean is this: I think about my legacy. I never thought about legacy before, and I'm not sure why it has become an obsession of mine. Maybe it's a symptom of mid-life crisis? Have I reached mid-life? This gets more and more depressing by the sentence!

All silliness aside, I'm serious about living a meaningful life, a life that will have positive future effects. What future effects? Influence. I want to be influential, but not for my sake, but for Christ's sake.

One of my favorite artists sings a song with the line, "I don't need the world to know my name – it never mattered if they did." I agree. If my name is known but Christ's name is not, I've failed. In our community if we are known but Christ is not, we've failed.

No matter what your goals are for this year, let me encourage you to set your goals with the words of John the Baptist, referring to Jesus, from John 3:30 –

He must increase, but I must decrease.

No matter the goal, may the core of the goal be the world's increased knowledge of Jesus and the decreased knowledge of all that is less significant.

Much love,

Wes LeFlore (918) 607-8489 or huserwes1@gmail.com

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

Introducing a NEW YEAR: 2020 has a very good sound, as we "ring it in." Who can say what this fresh new year will offer? What joys, what opportunities, what changes, what growth, what loss, what adjustments? None of us know what the year may hold, but, we know WHO holds the year, so trust God to continue to bless us and give us peace and joy. —Borrowed

"...for you have not been this way before."

—Joshua 3:4

A SONG ON MY HEART

He is a God to celebrate at work or school tomorrow. He is worthy of worship all week long. He wants to be praised in your dining room, your living room, your bedroom and your yard. God wants you to recognize Him when you pay your bills, when you get behind the wheel, when you make moral decisions or when standing in the checkout line. God wants every part of our life to honor and exalt His presence in your life.

Why should a song of praise be on our heart? He has done marvelous things, great and mighty things, and continues to fill the lives of His people with salvation, mercy and grace. God assures us of victory for all who have longed for His appearing.

To feel the presence of God in your heart you must ensure that God is Lord of your heart. Too often, our hearts are filled with the fears and worries of this world. Remember that God is in control and sitting on His throne. So let your heart praise Him and your face shine with His everlasting glory.

"Sing to the Lord a New Song..."

—Psalm 98:1

Be someone's sunshine when their skies are grey.

DAILY RESOLUTIONS

II Corinthians 4:16-18

Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day. For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.
