WHAT SATAN FEARS MOST

What Satan fears most is man on his knees.

Not marching armies with great weaponry.

He knows he can stand against the powers of man.

To engage in battle is a mere sport to him.

But a man on his knees with his head bowed in prayer

Is something quite different to the prince of the air.

For when he sees us in prayer to our God most high,

He knows we have seen through his devilish lies.

That’s why Satan fears most a man on his knees,

And we’ll keep him trembling if your prayers never cease.

Someone one once said, “Someday I would like to visit that church in Kansas City where we are told they have this slogan in their bulletin: ‘Wake up, sing up, preach up, pray up, stay up, pay up, but never give up, or back up or shut up until the cause of Christ in the church and in this world is built up!’”

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK

Be Kind

In my research regarding Matthew chapter twenty-four, I have come to a somewhat startling conclusion, one that I didn’t expect.

The conclusion that I have drawn is that in regards to this most disputed chapter is that there are two types of scholars, mean and kind.

Maybe there’s a part of me that’s still naive, and that’s also a surprise, but I thought that Biblical scholarship would ALL be kindhearted, regardless of different theological interpretations. I was wrong.

In a way, it makes my research easier, I only hope that it’s not to my detriment, but I will not read or listen to a mean-spirited scholar. I dismiss and move on automatically.

Here’s why- for one, to present your opinion, regardless of how well you articulate it, and insist upon its validity and furthermore insist that those who disagree are not as intelligent, is the height of arrogance.

Second, to assume that your position cannot be mistaken, even though the subject matter is not clear and among the most debated subject matters in the entire Bible, again, reeks of pride.

Third, in matters that do not pertain to salvation, grace and room for error and room for differences in interpretation must be allowed.

Fourth, Christians should never be mean. We can disagree about any and all Biblical topics without being unkind. And I think in this regard, most people will agree with me, though not all will, that you catch more flies with honey than vinegar!

Be kind! Ephesians 4:32 – Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.
