THE TONE OF VOICE
It’s not so much what you say as the manner in which you say it;
It’s not so much the language you use as the tone in which you convey it.
“Come here!” I sharply said, and the child cowered and wept.
“Come here,” I said-he looked and smiled and straight to my lap he crept.
Words may be mild and fair and the tone my pierce like a dart;
Words may be soft as the summer air but the tone may break the heart.

WHAT WINGS ARE TO A BIRD,
AND SAILS TO A SHIP, SO IS
PRAYER TO THE SOUL

When sadness fills your heart.
When tears flow in your eyes.
Always remember three things:
God is with you. Still with you.
Always with you.

2022 VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL THEME
“Joy Story”
You’ve Got A Friend in Me
June 26th - 29th

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK
Don’t Resist

Studying the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew has affected me in ways that I had not anticipated. Aside from some of the details of the chapter that are prone to easily confuse, the principles of the chapter are clear and convicting.

For instance, since studying this chapter, I find myself throughout the day often thinking about the return of Jesus.

It has been interesting to see the changes that the Holy Spirit has been working within me. When I think about Jesus returning it affects the words I use. It affects what I watch and listen to. It affects what I think about. It affects what I do.

I catch myself thinking about something I shouldn’t be thinking about and then suddenly think, “Is that what you want to be thinking about when Jesus returns?”

I can’t give myself any credit for this. It’s the work of the Holy Spirit through what we’ve been studying.

There’s a negative side as well. As much as I have felt tugged by the Spirit to live better in anticipation of Jesus’ return, I have also felt a temptation to ignore the urging of the Spirit and do what I want to do, think what I want to think, watch and listen to what I want to watch and listen to, and to say what I want to say.

That’s the old me. That’s me before Jesus saved me and before the Holy Spirit filled me. That old self does battle with the new. It’s the internal battle that Paul describes in Romans 7:15
<sup>15</sup> For what I am doing, I do not understand; for I am not practicing what I would like to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate.

But even though Paul struggled, he never stopped embracing God and resisting evil. May we do likewise. And be encouraged because 1 John 4:4 tells us that

Resist evil. Don’t resist the Holy Spirit. He wants to work a powerful change in you!

Much love,

Others on the prayer list: Lonnie Bennett, Helen Norris, David Carroll, Marya Young, Russell Day, Helen Norris, Kendall Brundage, Duane McKinney, Larry Helton, Joe Brown, Connie Morris, Melinda Miller, Hailee Moyer

JUST AN ORDINARY MEMBER
Just an ordinary member of the church I heard her say, but you’d always find her present, even on a rainy day. She had a warm handclasp for the stranger in the aisle, and a friend who was in trouble found sunshine in her smile.
When the sermon helped her she told the preacher so, and when she needed help she let the elders know. She always gave so freely and tried to do her share, in all the ordinary tasks for which some have no care.
Her talents were not many but her love for God was true, her prayers were not in public, but she prayed for me and you. An “ordinary member” did you say? I think I would say, she was “extra ordinary,” I a humble sort of way.
May each of us strive to be an “ordinary Christian.”
