ORPHAN SUNDAY SPECIAL CONTRIBUTION
We will be having a special contribution on Sunday, November 14 for Orphan’s Lifeline. Orphan’s Lifeline is an organization that takes orphans off the street, gives them a home, feeds them, clothes them, and makes sure they are loved and cared for every day. They teach them about God and Jesus and they make sure they get a good and proper education which will change their lives forever. This year’s contribution will go towards building homes for orphan families, sponsoring them and teaching them about God and His love.
Thank you for the Miracle of 21 years of saving the lives and caring for thousands of orphan children and widowed families.

Be so positive that negative people can’t stand to be around you!

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK
What God Expects

Did you know that God expects more from some than others? It’s true. Just listen to Jesus’ words from this week’s text in Matthew 25:15-

15 To one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability...

If there is only one thing that you remember about the Parable of the Talents, remember this: When Jesus says “talent,” He is not referring to a person’s natural aptitude or skill. He’s referring to a measurement of weight. And in the parable, it’s a weight of money.

The money does represent some ability and aptitude, but there’s more to it than that. The weight represents spiritual potential.

God has given some people more spiritual potential than others. For instance, not all people in the world have the Bible in their native language. These people are an example of a people that don’t have as much spiritual potential as those who have the ability to read and study the Bible and understand in a greater capacity who God is and what He expects of His followers.

You may think that you haven’t been given much spiritual potential, but if you have access to the Bible, a church family, and resources to learn and grow spiritually, you are among those who have been given a great weight, and the greater the weight, the greater the responsibility.

What are we to do with our spiritual potential? We’re to glorify God with our lives. We’re to be salt that flavors and preserves what is good in this world, chiefly, the knowledge of Jesus and what He did and what he commands His followers to do today.

We’re to be light that exposes the truth of Jesus and the lies of Satan. We’re to love God by obeying His commandments and love our neighbor as ourself.

God expects you and I to use what He has entrusted to us. He doesn’t expect us to use what we don’t have – He only expects us to use what we have.

What are you doing with God has given you?
Much love,

- A CHILD’S ADVICE TO HIS PARENTS
1. My hands are small. Please don’t expect perfection whenever I make a bed, draw a picture, or throw a ball.
 2. My eyes have not seen the world as yours have. Please let me explore it at my own level without unnecessary restrictions.
 3. Housework will always be there, but I will be little only for a short time. Please take time to explain about this wonderful world.
 4. My feelings are tender. Please be sensitive to my needs. Treat me as you would like to be treated.
 5. I am a special gift from God. Treasure me as God intended, holding me accountable for my actions, giving me guidelines to live by, and disciplining me in a loving manner.
 6. I need your encouragement to grow, so go easy on the criticism. Try to correct my behavior without criticizing me as a person.
 7. Give me the freedom to make decisions. Permit me to fail, so I can learn from my mistakes. Then I’ll be prepared to make the kind of decisions life requires of me as an adult.
 8. Don’t do jobs over that I have done. This makes me feel that my efforts don’t quite measure up to your expectations. I know it’s hard, but please don’t compare me with my brother or sister.
 9. Please don’t be afraid to leave for a weekend together. Kids need vacations from parents, just as parents need to get away occasionally. This is also a great way to show us kids that your marriage is very special.
 10. Please set a good example by taking me to Sunday School and church regularly. I enjoy learning more about God.
