YOUR FABRIC STASH CAN BLESS OTHERS!
When Afghanistan refugees come to Oklahoma City, they come with very little. One of the new ministries of the Memorial Road Church of Christ is supplying them with fabric so that they can make clothing and household items. It has been very popular among refugees.
If you would like to contribute to this, please bring the fabric to the church building fellowship room. There will be a table set up at the west end of the room to place the fabric. Please leave the fabric by May 1st.

- Any kind of fabric is accepted, except fur or polar fleece.
- The pieces donated should be 2 yards or more.
- The fabric is being used to make clothing, curtains, large pillows (which they use to sit on), etc. Those who have received fabric of their choosing have expressed great gratitude for this ministry.

If you have any questions, call Helen Norris at 620-326-1435 or email her at: thnorfarm@hotmail.com.

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK
The Same Mistakes

How do people make the same mistakes repeatedly? I think there are many possible answers to this question, but I’ll only discuss one in this article for the sake of brevity.

First, why do I even ask this question? I ask it, because here I sit in my office, writing this article, with a terrible sunburn on my face, neck, forearms and calves.

Is this my first sunburn? I wish I could say it was. I’ve had so many sunburns in my life that I can’t begin to guess how many I’ve had.

So, what do we call a person who makes the same mistake over and over again? A fool? A slow learner?

In some cases, we might say either of those, but in the case of sunburns, we usually give people a pass. Why? Because sunburns are very common and, in many cases, they are even unique.

For instance, let’s take my current sunburn. How did it happen? It was a cool day, the wind was blowing hard and it was also overcast. I got it at my kids’ track and field day competition. I got it under unusual conditions, for me.

I am a bit fanatical about protecting myself from the sun. I’m fanatical because in my life I’ve had many awful sunburn experiences. This has caused me to be guarded and cautious. When I mow the grass I wear pants, a long-sleeved shirt and a large brimmed hat. I do the same when I go on mission trips in the summer. I do the same when I go on float trips or go to the lake.

I do this because I’ve experienced a lot of sunburns in those specific situations.

But how many track and field days have I ever gone to with my children? Just a couple. And in my previous experiences, the venues had a lot of shade. This year, there was no shade. It was a new venue.

In the past, we’ve also always left early. We competed in our events, but then skipped the awards ceremony. We had friends that collected our awards and brought them to us. This year, we stayed for the awards ceremony.
