

BABY SPRINKLE FOR SARAH BRADBURY

Ladies, stop by for a come and go Baby “Sprinkle” for Sarah Bradbury Sunday, January 8 from 1:30 to 3:30 at the home of Jordyn Clark, 602 Sylvan Lane, Wellington.

Let’s celebrate Sarah & Nathan Bradbury and their baby boy (due in February)! Since they are “seasoned” parents, rather than a big baby shower, let’s give them a “sprinkling” of things they still need for baby #3. Since they have most bigger baby items already, let’s stock them up with newborn and size 1 diapers, baby bath products, books, onesies, and gift cards to Amazon, Walmart or a restaurant (to make life easier once baby arrives). If you have questions, see Kendall LeFlore or Jordyn Clark.

BLESSING BOX MINISTRY

Thank you church for your continued support of the Blessing Box ministry. As we approach the colder, holiday season we know there are more and more people in our community who are in need and continue to look to our church for help. We appreciate your support as we serve the Lord by reaching out to our neighbors in need! Donation boxes are set up for your convenience in the foyer and west hallway. Dollar Tree or Dollar General continue to be wonderful places to find a lot of these options at a low price. Our current needs:

Non-Perishable Food Items:	Hygiene Items:
Boxed Meals	Toothbrush/Toothpaste/Floss
Canned Soups/Bagged Soup Mixes	Hand Warmers
Canned Beans	Hair Brushes/Combs
Cake or Muffin Mixes	Lip Balm
Ramen Noodles	Pocket Size Kleenex
Peanut Butter/Jelly	Gloves/Stocking Hats/Scarves
Salt

Only Fear the LORD and serve Him faithfully with all your heart.
For consider what great things he has done for you.
—I Samuel 12:24

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK

The Impossible

When one sits down and tries to describe the Lord, there is immediately a great problem. It cannot be done.

The Grand Canyon is magnificent and it cannot be described in words. The Lord our God is far and wide and beyond the imagination more magnificent than The Grand Canyon. How does one even begin?

The Lord can, and should only be described using the words the He used in Holy Scripture. I’m not trying to limit our descriptions, but rather keep whatever descriptions we use to describe God consistent with what the Bible says. But even as wonderful as the scriptures are, the Lord through them gives us, like He gave Isaiah, nothing more than ...the train of His robe... (Isaiah 6:1).

We also know God, as many others do, through personal experience, and even this can be tricky, as understanding the ways that God works in our lives has to be discerned very carefully.

Why am I on about all this? Because this Sunday, I have to attempt the impossible. I have to attempt to tell you who God is.

I must. Our text is Proverbs 1:7, <sup>7</sup> The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; Fools despise wisdom and instruction. Without understanding, on some level, who God is, the verse does us no good, and I intend for this verse to do us a great amount of good, as I believe the Lord intends the same.

I think you’ll find that in the examination of God, you will find yourself being examined by God in ways that can be very transformative.

May all of our changes be for the good and for His glory and for His honor.

Much love!

CHRISTMAS REMINDERS

May the Christmas presents remind you of God’s greatest gift—his only begotten Son.

May the Christmas candles remind you of him who is the light of the world.

May the Christmas tree remind you of another tree on which he died for you.

May the Christmas cheer remind you of him who said, Be of good cheer.”

May the Christmas feast remind you of him who is the bread of life.

May the Christmas snow remind you of the cleansing power of Christ.

May the Christmas bells remind you of the glorious proclamation of his birth.

May the Christmas carols remind you of his glad tidings which we are to proclaim to all mankind.

May the Christmas season remind you in every way of Jesus Christ your King. —Selected
