A LITTLE HUMOR
A little girl became restless as the preacher’s sermon dragged on and on. Finally, she leaned over to her mother and whispered, “Mommy, if we give him the money now, will he let us go?”
Casey asked her Sunday School teacher a question: “If the people of Israel are Israelites, and the people of Canaan are Canaanites, are the people of Paris called Parasites?”
A Sunday School teacher was telling her class the story of the Good Samaritan, in which a man was beaten, robbed and left for dead. She described the situation in vivid detail so her students would catch the drama. Then she asked the class, “If you saw a person lying on the roadside all wounded and bleeding, what would you do? A thoughtful little girl broke the hushed silence, “I think I’d throw up!”

“A merry heart doeth good.” —Proverbs 17:22

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK:
The Time In Between

Over the next few chapters in our study of the Book of Acts, we get to observe the Apostle Paul navigating life while waiting for a particular life event to happen.

The event in question is Paul going to Rome. Paul wants to go and he has been told that he will go, but the difficulty that Paul faces is similar to the difficulty that we face.

The difficulty lies in the waiting.

Just as Paul would wait for it to be revealed to him how and when he would reach Rome, we too eagerly await the return of the Lord Jesus so we can make the journey to that new land that we can only imagine.

In between where we are now and our desired destination, lies life. And what we do in the time in between matters.

How blessed we are to have a record of what Paul did in his in between time. As we make a careful observance of how Paul lived out his faith in Jesus, effectively following Him, doing the good works that God placed before him, let us make note of how we might do the same.

Our end goal should be to hear the words of the Lord Jesus from Matthew 25:21 –

“Well done good and faithful servant.”

Also, remember you are not alone in your following of Jesus – the church is here with you and for you.

Much love!

Big Picture Question:
Q: What is Repentance?
A: Repentance is turning away from sin and turning to Jesus.
“(If) my people, who bear my name, humble themselves, pray and seek my face, and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and lead their land.”—II Chronicles 7:14
