FROM THE PREACHERS DESK
It Bears Repeating
Imagine what it was like to be one of the Apostles, called personally by Jesus, learning from Him and observing His miracles.

But then one day, He says to partner up and then He send you and your partner to another place to do the preaching yourself. You can read about Jesus doing this very thing in the Gospel accounts of Matthew, Mark and Luke.

Not only did Jesus tell them to go and preach, but their message was one of the toughest messages to preach, but also the message that even true followers of Jesus need reminded of most often. Mark 6:12 says simply,

They went out and preached that men should repent.
You may understand the implications of that message, but then again, you might think, what’s so hard about that?

To preach repentance is to look men and women in the eye and tell them that they need to change. It’s to tell them that the sin in their life is not okay with God and that they must turn away from that sin. Preaching repentance is telling people that they have a great problem and that great problem, sin, is separating them from a relationship with God in this life and will damn them for all eternity in the next life.

When repentance was preached, some cried out requesting a solution, some walked away believing that they didn’t have anything to repent from, and others reacted with violence. There were also some that pondered the message a while before drawing their own conclusion of what, if any action they should take.

The thing is, Jesus is still sending out His followers – you and me – to teach the same message. It’s an old message, but one that must be taught again and again and again. We all need to hear it over and again as well.

Living a life of constant repentance, a constant striving to be less like ourselves and more like Jesus is a hallmark of Christianity.

It is a message that bears repeating. Do so with humility and gentleness.

Much love!

ME, MYSELF AND I
Looking out for number one. That’s the message many in our society preach and follow. In many ways, we have become a nation of people obsessed with self-preservation and satisfaction. Just as long as I’m happy, have everything I want when I want it, then phooey on everyone else! Remember the toilet paper shortage of 2022? We saw terrible examples of greediness and selfishness demonstrated in our grocery stores. This attitude is completely opposite from that of the Christian, for the bible states, “For they all seek after their own interests, not those of Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 2:21) The child of God must dedicate themselves to a life of service to God and other people. Jesus taught us to, “Give to him who asks of you, and do not turn away from him who wants to borrow from you.” (Matthew 5:42) Folks, that means the last roll of toilet paper! As we co-exist in the church, this attitude is of the utmost importance. Physical and spiritual support come from raising each other up, no exceptions, no exclusions. We all want to be pleasing to God, so the Hebrew writer said, “But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.” (Hebrews 13:16) Instead of “Me, Myself, and I”, let us make our life’s ambition to be, “God, Christ, and Others.”
