 people will forget what you did,
 but people will never forget how you made them feel!

FROM THE PREACHERS DESKThe Call of God

In what ways will you be seeking a new start in the new year? I wrote about this same thing around a month or so ago, and I'm not seeking to simply repeat myself now, but rather I'm seeking to plead with you.

Now, I don't know any specific thoughts of anybody within our congregation, but what I do know is that in Isaiah 55:11 the Lord says,

"...My word be which goes forth from My mouth; It will not return to Me empty, without accomplishing what I desire, and without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it.

God is in the business of calling his followers into deeper relationship with Him for the purpose of joining Him in His good work.

So how has He been calling you? If you don't know, it's not because He hasn't been speaking, it's because you haven't been listening.

As the new year approaches, be listen for His call and plan to be ready.

For our good and His glory,

Wes LeFlore (918) 607-8489 or huskerwes1@gmail.com

Greek of the Week:

In our text this week is the Greek verb epanapauomai, which, in our text is the English word "rely." It can also be translated to rest or settle upon. You may find it helpful to imagine the building of a house upon a secure foundation in which its solidity can be relied upon.
