MEN’S FELLOWSHIP & BIBLE STUDY
Men of the Church, join us this Thursday, December 18 at 6:00 p.m. for a night of great food and fellowship. Please respond to Wes so food can be planned appropriately. Call, text, or email him at (918) 607-8489 or huskerwes1@gmail.com.

NEW YEARS EVE CELEBRATION
There is a New Year’s Eve celebration after Wednesday evening services, Dec. 31. Please bring games and snacks to share.

BLESSING BOX MINISTRY
Thank you Church family for the cash donations and for your continued support of our Blessing Box ministry! We are in high need of items! We are adding canned goods back in the mix. Also, we are still taking money so someone else can shop for you!
*“For the whole law is fulfilled in one word:
“You shall Love your neighbor as yourself.”” —Galatians 5:14 ESV*

FROM THE PREACHERS DESK
Look Broader

It is not at all uncommon for me to get hung up on a single verse in a chapter of a book of the Bible.

I’m okay with that now, but there was a time when I wasn’t okay with it at all. By “okay,” I mean that I have learned to accept it. I’m not happy accepting it, but there you are.

If you have similar struggles in your studies, allow me to share some things that I’ve discovered on my journey that are helpful to me.

Sometimes, getting a good grip on the verse can be as simple as reading the entire passage in which the verse is contained. I apologize if that seems too elementary, I don’t mean to condescend, but in my defense, I am most often asked questions about individual verses.

So begin with the paragraph and if that isn’t helpful, read the whole chapter. I find that getting a good grip of understanding on a chapter is often much easier than an individual verse.

Sometimes an even broader context is necessary. For instance, it’s important to know when you’re studying Matthew chapter six, that chapter six is the middle chapter of The Sermon on the Mount, which begins in chapter five and concludes in chapter seven. Those three chapters are all the same context and must be treated as such.

Sometimes the overall context of the entire Book being studied must be considered. I find this especially true when studying the Book of John.

To the true seeker, the Bible is a treasure chest like nothing else in the world. It is a living, breathing and speaking document. There is none other like it.

And as always, if you ever want someone to discuss it with, it is my greatest pleasure and favorite pastime.

Much love!

CHILDREN’S CORNER
Daniel was faithful to God, and he was blessed with wisdom. Our Theme for Children’s & Teens Bible Classes for December is “Daniel Obeyed God.” Here is a peek at this month’s lessons, the Big Picture Question and Bible Verse.

Dec 07—Daniel Obeyed God (Daniel 1)
Dec 14—Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego (Daniel 3)
Dec 21—Daniel in the Lions Den (Daniel 6)
Dec 28—Daniel’s Prophecies (Daniel 7-12)

Big Picture Question:
Q: How can we glorify God?
A: We can glorify God by loving Him and obeying Him

Whether, then, you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.
—I Corinthians 10:31

Three things you cannot recover in life: the WORD after it’s said, the MOMENT after it’s missed, the TIME after it’s gone.

Greek of the Week:
In our text this week is a very uncommon Greek word, prosōpolēmpsia. As a matter of fact, it’s a word that was created by the combination of prosopon (face) and lambanō (to take/ receive). In the NASB Bible, prosōpolēmpsia is transliterated into the English word “partiality.”
In our vernacular, we might say, “to take at face value.” And the Apostle Paul says, in Romans 2:11, For there is no partiality with God, which is to say most literally that God does not accept people at face value.

God goes beyond the outward appearance, which can deceive people, but can never deceive God – He sees, and makes determinations, based upon what is inside of a person.
